NO EXECUTIVE SESSION

Laddie Biles, Floodplain & Zoning Coordinator for the City approached the council regarding a couple properties in the city. He stated the property located at 125 Fairlane Drive had fallen last week, and it is being cleaned up today. The other property he spoke about was 193 Main Street. This building has no interior walls and no roof. There are a lot of pigeons that are in that area. He stated he has witnessed a Hawk killing a Pigeon in one of the front windows. He said this needs to be addressed. Councilwoman Patton ask about if the Zoning Committee was meeting. Laddie stated that pigeons carry many different diseases and can be harmful. Councilwoman Pugh ask Attorney McGinnis about the Building Inspector from Russell who would possibly come down and look at these buildings. Attorney McGinnis said his name is Gary Boyd and he would send the contact information to the City Clerk and for the Fire Chief to give him a call. Councilman Walje stated this is not going to be an easy fix.
